Vigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Walking the Path of Peace

Caminando sobre el camino de la paz

The readings, this weekend, take us to a deep, deep place. The first reading realizes that the human mind is too small to contain God--if the entirety of God could be crammed into this little skull, it would be a very small god, indeed! So, how do we know anything of this God? Because with great love, God chose to reveal it to us--this for the author of the Book of Wisdom is what the Torah is--a book of words, each with an infinite depth of meaning--opening us onto the infinity of God--and giving us behaviors that can help us draw near to the Mystery that is beyond us. The second reading reminds us that no act can draw us near to God that is forced--the "drawing near" to God must always be voluntary, and it is done by drawing near to our neighbor--in the case of the second reading, a slave, and a run-away-slave at that! The Gospel reading reminds us that the path of drawing near to God is hard--like a cross--and our families will perhaps not want it for us--for it is a path of peace, and peace is never as glorious as beating up the foe. Rebellion was always in the air in the first half of the first century, when Jesus lived. Here, he begs people not to go to war--"count the cost, if nothing else! Look at how powerful they are! Are you crazy?" But, walking the path of peace is all about building the space that allows us to draw near to the Divine Presence. Where do you have a choice between "making peace" and "making a battle?"

- Fr., Bill Axe

Las lecturas de este fin de semana, nos llevan a un lugar bien profundo. La primera lectura se da cuenta que la mente humana es muy pequeña para contener a Dios- si es que la totalidad de Dios se puede contener en esta pequeña cabeza, ¿será un Dios bastante pequeño! Entonces, ¿cómo sabemos algo sobre este Dios? Porque con gran amor, Dios decidió revelarlo a nosotros- esto es para el autor del Libro de Sabiduría es lo que el Tora es- un libro de palabras, cada uno con un significado infinitamente profundo- llevándonos hacia la infinidad de Dios- y dándonos maneras de ser que nos puedan ayudar a estar cerca al Misterio que está más allá de nosotros. La segunda lectura nos recuerda que ningún acto nos puede acercar a Dios si es que es forzado- el "acercarse" a Dios debe de siempre ser voluntario, y se hace al acercarnos al prójimo- ¡en el caso de la segunda lectura, un esclavo, y un esclavo que se escapa! El Evangelio nos recuerda que el camino para acercarse a Dios es difícil- como una cruz- y nuestras familias a lo mejor no lo querrán para nosotros- puesto que es el camino de la paz, y la paz no es tan glorioso como cuando se le golpea al rival. La rebelión siempre estaba en el ambiente en la primera mitad del primer siglo, cuando vivía Jesús. Aquí, les pide a la gente que no se vayan a guerra- "¡cuenten el costo, si es que no hay más! ¡Vean qué tan poderosos son! ¿Están locos?" Pero, caminando sobre el camino de la paz siempre se trata de crear los espacios que nos permiten acercarnos a la Presencia Divina. ¿Dónde tienen la opción entre "haciendo la paz" y "haciendo una batalla?"

OUR MISSION - NUESTRA MISIÓN

To build and foster a Christian Community that offers the opportunity to experience God's unconditional love and acceptance to all who come into contact with it.

Crear y alimentar una comunidad cristiana que ofrezca la oportunidad de experimentar el amor incondicional de Dios y la aceptación a todos con quienes nos encontremos.

Dear Parish Family

Querida Familia Parroquial

Our Gospel today gives us some very daunting challenges. Does Christ really mean all these things he says to us? What are we getting ourselves into?? We are getting into the most radical commitment of our lives- to accept Christ as our Lord and Savior. We are committing to him and his mission to bring new life to the world, and to bring all our relationships into our life in him. We commit to work at having that mind in us that was in Christ Jesus.

Nuestro Evangelio nos da unos retos abrumadores. ¿Será que Cristo en verdad quiere decir todas estas cosas que nos dice? ¿En qué nos estamos metiendo? Nos estamos comprometiendo en el compromiso más radical de nuestras vidas- de aceptar a Cristo como nuestro Señor y nuestro Salvador. Nos estamos entregando a él y a su misión de traer nueva vida al mundo, y de traer todas nuestras relaciones hacia nuestras vidas en él. Nos comprometemos en el trabajo teniendo esa mente en nosotros que estaba en Cristo Jesús .

We are getting ourselves into bringing about a renewed world, where a new sense of family moves us beyond blood ties, a new sense of self takes us beyond personal fulfillment, a new sense of relationship to possessions carries us beyond "shop, shop, shop." So count the cost, know what's at stake, and commit this day to Christ the Lord.

Nos estamos comprometiendo en tener un mundo renovado, donde un nuevo sentido de familia nos mueve más allá de nuestros lazos de sangre, un nuevo sentido de ser nos lleva más allá de una realización personal, un nuevo sentido de relacionarse a las posesiones nos lleva más allá de la "compra, compra, compra." Así que cuenten el costo, sepan lo que está en juego, y dediquen este día a Cristo el Señor.

Have a good week,
Sr. Karen

Que tengan una semana agradable,
Hermana Karen

It is very important that these pledges be paid so that our parish will reach and, hopefully, exceed our goal.

Es muy importante que estas promesas se completan para que nuestra parroquia alcanzará y, ojala, superar nuestra meta.

Once the pledge payments have exceeded our goal, we receive all of the additional funds for use in our parish ministries.

Una vez que los pagos de aspirantes han superado nuestro objetivo, recibimos todos los fondos adicionales para el uso en los ministerios de nuestra parroquia.

We are $17,292.20 short of the goal in pledges; $25,400.20 short in payments if we had the total amount pledged.

If you have not already made a pledge, please prayerfully consider making a pledge or one time gift to help the poor parishes in our Archdiocese.

GOAL / META	$40,297.20
Pledges / Promesas	$23,018.00

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

Becoming a Catholic-Christian is an adventure! Some of us are born into a Catholic family and baptized as infants. For others, the journey to God may take a different route. Each life story, each faith journey is unique. And God is there every step of the way. Where are you in this adventure? Are you looking for a place to belong? Perhaps it is time to begin "INQUIRING" about the Catholic faith. If this is you, please call the Pastoral Office at (323) 935-8127. We would like to hear your story.

David, Andrew, Felix, Natalie B , Berta, Gloria and Celeste spent their Saturday making flower bouquets, preparing the lunch bags, serving the meal, and passing on blessings of their time and talent to our guests.

We praise God for seeing our needs and sending all of you.

We were made aware of a possible situation for our prep for the Annual Christmas Day Dinner this year. Because Stella School's last day before the Winter break is Friday December 20 we will not be able to use the hall that week to prepare for the Dinner. This does present a big problem for us BUT NOT FOR GOD. As most of you know we usually use the hall a week or more before Christmas to collect food, collect and sort used cloth clothing, collect and wrap gifts, use the refig to store and thaw turkeys and store refrigerated perishable foods. We will have 4 jam packed rushed days to be ready to serve on Christmas Day. This is do able with God and your support. We are wondering if anyone has a connection with someone who rents/owns POD storage containers who will donate one for us to use from November 30 through December 28. We will collect and store the used items in this area. This donation can provide free Advertisement for them (everyone in the church will see the storage container) and the church can provide them with a donation letter. If anyone is a aware of anyone who can help us by making this donation please call Margie at 323-934-8127. Thank you.

Letters for Vendor for the 2013 Holiday Boutique has been mailed to 2012 years participants. PLEASE NOTE

Vendor space/spaces are not reserved or held until the completed application and full suggested donation has been received. Inquiries can be made by calling Margie 323-935-8127

We can serve only because God has placed it on your heart to support the S.H.A.R.E. Outreach Ministry. Thank you.

On your journey this week note how God is using you to be a blessing for someone. God may not give you a neon sign that says "pass me on" He'll give you a very small you almost missed moment that the receiver and you the giver will feel and recognize and may be even make you wanna shout and perhaps even dance,

Blessings,

Immediate Action Needed!

Help us stop SB 131 (Beall)! Current law treats victims of child sexual abuse the same, regardless of where the abuse took place and regardless of whether the abuser worked for a public school, a private school or a religious organization.

A controversial bill winding its way through the state Legislature would change all that. Under SB 131, victims who were abused by employees or volunteers of private or non-profit organizations would be able to sue those organizations even if the statute of limitations was over. Victims who may have been abused in public schools or by government workers, on the other hand, get nothing. As the bill is currently drafted, not only are they prevented from suing the school, they can't even sue the actual perpetrator who committed the abuse.

The California Catholic Conference opposes SB 131, and opposes discrimination against victims and private employers. SB 131 is also opposed by a growing coalition of that includes private schools and universities, the Police Activity League, the California YMCA/YWCA, USA Swim, USA Gymnastics, other religious groups and the La Raza Roundtable de California. Visit www.cacatholic.org for more information and click "ACT NOW" for an email that you can send to your Assembly Member.
